

Vesper Propers, August 25, 2013
Fourteenth Sunday after Pentecost

Return of the relics of the holy apostle Bartholomew. They were stolen by the Armenians, and then taken to the town of Lipara. At the time of Theophilus the Iconoclast, they were translated again, this time to the town of Benevento. From there they were taken to Rome.

The holy apostle Titus is counted one of the Seventy. Born in Crete, he was baptized by the Apostle Paul. He served Paul in such sincerity of heart that Paul called him his son (Titus 1:4) as well as his brother (II Cor. 12:18). He was made the first bishop of Crete, where he wisely governed the Church to great old age. He died at the age of ninety-four.

We rightly call you bles - sed, O il - lus - tri - ous Bar - tho - lo - mew, for you are a sun shining with countless rays, a never-set - ting star, a liv - ing heav - en which declares the saving glo - ry of our God, a div - ine her - ald, a light for the na - tions, a river pouring forth streams of wis - dom to re - fresh all hearts.

Cantor: My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

Your voyages a - cross the sea, O ho - ly A - pos - tle Bar - tho - lo - mew, have revealed a splendor which passes all un - der - stand - ing. Laid to rest in a precious reliquary, you travelled from East to West in the com - pany of illlus - tri - ous mar - tyrs who served as a guard of hon - or for you at the com - mand of the all - pow - er - ful Lord.

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak, and Israel on the Lord.
(on 4)

You sanctified the waves by your won - drous cros - sing, and you arrived at the is - land

Stichera of the holy apostle Titus - Tone 4 samohlasen

Preach-ing the one God in three Per - sons, you trampled down the sea of false gods of the na-tions. Those who were flounder-ing in god-less depths, you brought safe-ly to a serene harbor, O blessed Apost-le Ti - tus. Thus, you re-ceived your re-ward in hea - ven, where you pray to the Lover of us all for those who sing to your name.

Cantor: Praise the Lord all you nations; Psalm 116
 (on 2) acclaim him all you peoples.

Your soul illumined by di - vine light, O blessed Titus, you set out with ho-ly Paul, as a ray of that great Sun which drives a-way dark-ness. With him, you chased away the shad-ows from the earth. Thus, we call you bles - sed as an inspired hierarch, a holy Apostle, and a fer - vent in - ter - ces - - sor.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
 (on 1) he is faithful forever.

①
 A native of Crete, you re-turned to it as the unshakeable foundation upon which the Orthodox Faith was es-tab-lished. You enlightened believers through the power of our God, O Ti-tus, trav-eling-companion of ho - ly Paul, and be-came the first to occupy the bishop's throne in your home - land. You now in - ter - cede for the faith-ful.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory... now and ever...

For-sak-ing earth-ly things you fol-lowed af-ter Christ and having been marked by the inspiration of the Ho - ly Spi - rit, you were sent by Him to the na - tions who were per - ish - ing to turn the people to the light of the know - ledge of God, O apos-tle Bar-tho - lo - mew. And hav - ing completed the divine feast of your Pray to Him, O blessed one, that He grant us great mer - - - cy.

Cantor: (Tone 5) Now and ever...
