

Vesper Propers, October 19, 2014
Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

The holy prophet Joel, who announced the great day of the Lord and the mysterious pouring out of the Spirit on all flesh, which the divine majesty in Christ deemed fit to fulfill marvelously on the day of Pentecost.

The holy martyr Varus in Egypt. He was a soldier, who, under Maximianus the emperor, visited and refreshed six holy hermits held in a prison. When a seventh died in the wilderness, Varus wished to take his place and suffered most cruel torments with them. (307) from him, so has the Spirit of God been poured forth over us the faithful, the splen - dor and grace of God.

Let the watch-man count on day-break and Is-ra-el on the Lord.
By your pro-phet-ic pow-er, O Joel, and the in-timacy of your spir-it with God, through which you con-tem-plate what is seen in heav-en, make the Lord fa-v'ra-ble to us who cel-e-brate your mem-'ry with faith.
Ob-tain for us the re-mis-sion of our sins, com-munion in di-vine joy and great mer-cy.

(on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.
