

Vesper Propers, September 27, 2020
Seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost

The holy martyr Callistratus and his companions. Raised a Christian, he became a soldier. Reported by one of his cohort as a believer, he was imprisoned and ordered to offer sacrifice to idols. He refused. He was repeatedly tortured and still remained faithful—so much so that forty-nine of his fellow-soldiers came to believe in Christ. They were killed by the sword. (304)

Cantor: (Tone 8) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of the holy martyr Callistratus - Tone 8 samohlasen

O mar-tyr Cal-li-stra - tus, en-light-ened in your spirit by the ra-diance of faith, you un-swerv-ing - ly fol-lowed the path lead - ing to the blessedness of the fu - ture life, tri-umph-ing o - ver all the snares of the en - e - my.
Thus we call you blessed O ho - ly one, and glorify your sa - cred mem - o - ry.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations,
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

②

O mar-tyr Cal - li - stra - - tus, hav - ing heard the word of Life in your con-tem-pla - tion, you gui - ded those who had been held in death through ig - no - rance toward the true Life. We be - lieve that those who are eage - r to die for Christ are real - ly a - live in him who is the Res - ur - rec - tion of all. With them, re - mem - ber us in the pres - ence of the Lord, the High - est Good.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
 (on 1) he is faithful forever.

Cantor: (Tone 4) Glory...

Doxastikon of the holy martyr Callistratus - Tone 4 samohlasen

Be - fore your vena - ble death on the Cross, man - kind stood in ter - ror of death.
 But after your glo - ri - ous Pas - sion, it is death that stands in fear of man.
 Thus, your ho - ly martyr stood fast and overthrew all the strength of the en - e - my.
 By his prayers, O Lord, grant sal - va - tion to our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 8) Now and ever...
