Stichera of our venerable father Procopius the Decapolite - Tone 4 samohlasen

By virtue of cre - a - tion, you were made in the image and like-ness of God, O blessed fa-ther Pro-co - pi - us. You made e - very effort to preserve the dignity of the i - mage by your pi - ety, the pu-ri - ty of your soul, chas - tity, temperance in restrain-ing the pas - sions, per - se - ver - ence in the true faith, and the manner in which you ob-served the pre - cepts of Christ.

Praise the Lord, all you na-tions, ac-claim him all you peo - ples!

You joined the confes-sion of the faith to the asceticism which you had first set out to prac-tice, O Pro-co - pi-us. In both, you were well-pleasing to the Cre - a - tor, who seeks no-bil - ity of soul in all of us. You glo - rified the coming of our

God in the flesh by bowing down before his sac-red i - con, which represents him in his hu - man con - di - - - tion.

Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faith-ful for - ev - er.

O venerable father Pro-co - pi - us, by opposing the impious who rendered the in-car-na-tion vain, you had to endure the tor-ture of scour-ging, all types of vile mistreatment, sufferings in chains and im - pris - on - ment. Nev - er - the-less, you af-firmed the truth and thus inherited the kingdom of Christ in ineffa-ble joy and e - ter - nal de-light.

Glo - ry to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spir-it, now and ev - er and for - ev - er. A - men.

Theotokion - in the same tone

All - pure one, you contained the uncontaina-ble God in your womb when he became one of us in his love for man-kind, tak - ing our nature from you and making it di - vine. Do not de - spise me now in my af - flic - tion, but take
