

Songs for the Great Fast and Holy Week

Traditional Spiritual Songs
In English and Slavonic

Metropolitan Cantor Institute
Byzantine Catholic Archeparchy of Pittsburgh
2019

The tradition set of “Lenten hymns” sung in the Byzantine (Ruthenian) Catholic Church is mixed set of hymns of repentance, hymns for particular days (such as Palm Sunday), and hymns of the Passion of Christ. In the past, hymns of the Passion predominated, since they accompanied devotions such as the Way of Cross which were imported from the Latin tradition.

With the rediscovery of a more authentic Byzantine tradition for the forty-day Great Fast, it seems an appropriate time to consider which of these songs are more fitting for singing during the Fast itself – namely, those focusing on conversion, repentance, and trust in God – and which might more worthily sung in connection with the services of Great and Holy Week.

At the same time, we are taking this opportunity to correct typographical errors, bad accents, and phrasing which is unnecessarily different from the original Slavonic hymns, many of which are sung in our church to this day.

This collection is part of the Hymnal Project of the Metropolitan Cantor Institute. For more information:

How you can help:

1. Please send any corrections or suggestions to mci@archpitt.org.
2. We are particularly looking for assistance in preparing literal translations of some of the Slavonic hymns in this collection, as well as single translations of additional verses which have not yet made their way into English. If you would like to help with this error, please write to mci@archpitt.org.
3. Try singing the hymns in this collection, and let us know how they work, and what improvements might be made.

May God richly bless your Fast!

Pronunciation of Slavonic

The Church Slavonic texts in the following pages are presented in a variation of the Latin alphabet used with English, rather than in the original Cyrillic alphabet. Certain additional symbols are added to indicate the correct pronunciation. The system used here is one commonly employed in our prayer books.

In Church Slavonic, each letter has a uniform sound in whatever word it is found.

The following letters vary in pronunciation from their equivalent in the English language:

VOWELS

A as in fAther (approx.)

E as in bEt

I as in bIt

O as in mOre

U as in mOOn

Y as in bUt

CONSONANTS

C as ts in wits

Č as ch in Church

CH as ch in loch

D' as di in radiant

J as y in yet

L' as li in brilliant

Ň as ni in union

R is always trilled

Š as sh in show

T' as ti in celestial

V' as vi in Savior

Ž as s in pleasure

Note: d', l', Ň, t', and v' indicate that the given consonant is followed by the sound as "y" as in yellow, as shown in the examples above. (D' and T' are sometimes written Ď and Ť.)

Accented vowels are marked in order to assist in pronunciation, but may not be strongly accented when sung.

When in doubt, use the locally accepted pronunciation of Church Slavonic.

Have mercy on me, O my God

(Selected verses from Psalm 50)

GREAT FAST

Have mer - cy on me, O my God, in your great good - ness,
In the great-ness of your mer - cy, blot out my of - fense.

for it is your kind-ness and great mer - cy that for-gives.
Wash a - way my sins com-plete - ly, cleanse me of my sin.

For I acknowledge my offense,
my sin is before me.* (see music below)
Against you I sinned and have done evil in your sight.

Give me a clean heart, O my God;
renew my spirit.*
Cast me not out from your presence,
fill me with your life.

Cleanse me of my sins with hyssop
that I may be made pure.
Wash me and I shall be whiter
than new-fallen snow.

Free me from blood guilt, O my God;
you are my saving God.
Then shall my tongue speak out in joy
of your justice great.

Let me hear the sounds of gladness;
then shall my bones rejoice.
Turn away your face from my sins,
blot out all my guilt.

O Lord, open my mouth and lips;
your praise I shall proclaim.*
A heart contrite with humbleness
you will not reject.

* my sin is be - fore me.
re - new my spi - rit.
your praise I shall pro - claim.
