Troparia

Troparion of our venerable father Anthony the Great - Tone 4

Fa - ther An - thony, you imitated E-li - jah in his zeal, and you fol - lowed John the Baptist in his ho - ly way of life. You took up your abode in the des - ert and strength-ened the world by your pray'rs. In - tercede with Christ our God that he may save our souls.

Cantor: Glory...now and ever...

Festal Theotokion in the same tone (Tone 4, p. 68)

Our venerable father Anthony the Great, who, bereaved by his parents' death, accepted the evangelical commands, distributed all his goods to the poor and retired in solitude to the Thebaid in Egypt. He began to lead an ascetic life and diligently worked to strengthen the Church, sustaining confessors of the faith during the persecution of the Emperor Diocletian. He supported St. Athanasius against the Arians. He had many disciples, and is thus considered the father of monks. (356)

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2006

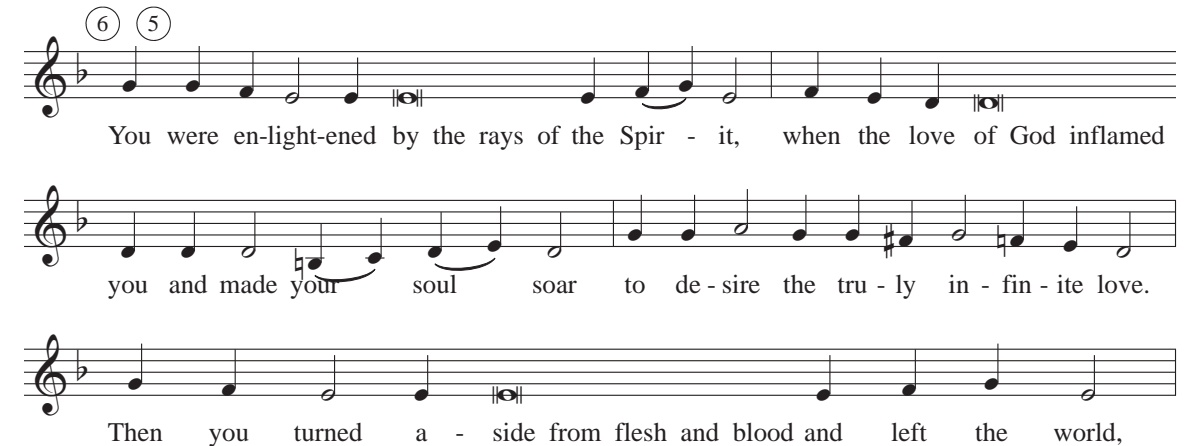

Lamplighting Psalms in Tone 4, p. 58.

Bring my soul out of this prison *
and then I shall praise your name.
Around me the just will assemble * because of your goodness to me.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord; *
Lord, hear my voice!
Let your ears be attentive *
to the voice of my pleading.

Cantor: If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Stichera for our venerable father Anthony the Great - Tone 4 podoben: Zvanny svyše byv

You were en-light-ened by the rays of the Spir - it, when the love of God inflamed you and made your soul soar to de - sire the tru - ly in - fin - ite love.
Then you turned a - side from flesh and blood and left the world, while re-main-ing united with it through great abstin-ence and si-lence.

There-fore, as you de-sired, you have been filled with bles-sings and ra-di-at-ed them, en-light-en-ing our souls as a star, O An-thon-y.

Cantor: My soul is longing for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.
All repeat "You were enlightened..."

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

By the grace of the di-vine Spir-it, you be-came ra-diant with di-vine light and broke the bows and arrows of the dev-ils. By di-vine teach-ings, you ex-posed all their e-vil snares. You are a ra-diant light for monks, the first glo-ry of the des-ert, a most pre-cious and skilled physi-cian for the sick, and the first living ex-ample of the life of vir-tue, as you saw the face of God and led from earth to heav-en those who followed you in-to the des-ert. You de-destroyed the sea of the passions with the staff of the Cross. Hav-ing de-feat-ed the rag-ing Am-a-lek, you were blessed by God, find-ing the way to heav-en with-out ob-sta-cles.

Re-joic-ing in your incorrupti-ble in-her-i-tance, you stand with the angels be-fore the throne of God. Pray to him that great mer-cy be grant-ed to our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 8) Glory...

Aposticha doxastikon of our venerable father Anthony the Great - Tone 8 samohlasen

All the monks honor you, O holy Father, as a spir-it-u-al guide.

Through you, we have set out on the nar-row path; blest are you for hav-ing

Doxastikon of our venerable father Anthony the Great - Tone 6 samohlasen

You pre-served the image of God with-in you, set - ting the mind as master over the restless passions by your as - cet - ic life. As far as possible, you have grown in the di - vine like - ness. Brave-ly con-trol-ling na - ture, you have subjected the lower to the high - er and made the body the serv - ant of the spir - it.
There-fore you became the head of those living the mon - as - tic life as a dweller in the des - ert, a spir - itual father teaching those who drew near to you, and an ex - am - ple of vir - tue. Now in heav - en, O An - thon - y, the look - ing - glass has been brok - en and you di - rect - ly gaze upon the Trin - i - ty: pray for those who hon - or you with faith and love.

Cantor: Now and ever...
