The Divine Liturgy of Our Holy Father Basil the Great

The faithful STAND when the preparatory rites are completed and the great incensation of the church takes place. Then the clergy quietly say the prayers before commencing the Divine Liturgy, and the holy doors are opened.

Deacon: Reverend Father, give the blessing.

Celebrant: Blessed is the kingdom of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:  A - men.

The faithful may SIT as the Litany of Peace begins:

Deacon: In peace, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:  1. Lord have mercy.

Deacon: For peace from on high and for the salvation of our souls, let us pray to the Lord.

Response:  2. Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: For peace in the whole world, for the stability of the holy Churches of God, and for the union of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Response: Lord, have mercy. (1)

Deacon: For this holy church and for all who enter it with faith, reverence, and fear of God, let us pray to the Lord.

For you are our sanctification, and we give glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

Celebrant: Let us go forth in peace.

Response:

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord.

Response:

The celebrant, going before the ambon and facing East, intones the Ambon Prayer.

Celebrant: Lord, blessing those who bless you and sanctifying those who trust in you, save your people and bless your inheritance, preserve the fullness of your Church, sanctify those who love the beauty of your house; glorify them in return by your divine power, and do not forsake us who hope in you. Grant peace to your world, to your churches, to the priests, to our government, and to all your people; for all generous giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from you, the Father of Lights; and we give glory, thanksgiving, and worship to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

Response: Lord, have mercy. (2)

Deacon: For our holy father, Benedict, pope of Rome, let us pray to the Lord.

Deacon: Arise! Now that we have received the divine, holy, most pure, immortal, heavenly, life-creating, and awesome mysteries of Christ, let us worthily thank the Lord.

Response:
1. Lord have mercy

Celebrant: We thank you, O Lord our God, for our sharing in your holy, most pure, immortal, and heavenly mysteries which you have given us for the benefit, sanctification, and healing of our souls and bodies. You, O Master of all, grant that the communion of the holy body and blood of your Christ may bring about in us a faith that cannot be confounded, a love that does not pretend, a wisdom that overflows, the healing of our souls and bodies, the defeat of every enemy, the full observance of your commandments, and an

All:

O Lord, I believe and profess that you are truly Christ, the Son of the living God, who came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the first.

Accept me today as a partaker of your mystical supper, O Son of God; for I will not reveal your Mystery to your enemies, nor will I give you a kiss as did Judas, but like the thief I profess you:

Remember me, O Lord, when you come in your kingdom.
Remember me, O Master, when you come in your kingdom.
Remember me, O Holy One, when you come in your kingdom.

May the partaking of your holy Mysteries, O Lord, be not for my judgement or condemnation, but for the healing of soul and body.

O Lord, I also believe and profess that this, which I am about to receive, is truly your most precious body, and your life-giving blood, which, I pray, make me worthy to receive for the remission of all my sins and for life everlasting. Amen.

O God, be merciful to me a sinner.
O God, cleanse me of my sins, and have mercy on me.
O Lord, forgive me for I have sinned without number.

Deacon: Bow your heads to the Lord.

Response: To you, O Lord.

Celebrant: Master, Lord, Father of mercies, and God of all consolation, bless, sanctify, guard, confirm, and strengthen those who have bowed their heads to you. Turn them away from every evil deed, equip them for every good work, and make them worthy to partake of these your most pure and life-creating mysteries without condemnation for the remission of their sins and for communion of the Holy Spirit.

Through the grace, the mercies, and the loving-kindness of your only-begotten Son with whom you are blessed, together with your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Deacon: Reverend Father, bless the proclaimer of the Gospel of the holy apostle and evangelist (Name).

Celebrant: May God, through the prayers of the holy, glorious, and illustrious apostle and evangelist (Name), grant that you proclaim the word with great power for the fulfillment of the Gospel of his beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

Deacon: Amen.

Celebrant: Wisdom! Let us stand and listen to the holy Gospel. Peace be to all.

And make us worthy, O Lord God of heaven, that we may with confidence and without condemnation dare call you "Father" and say:

Response:
1. Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: For the precious gifts offered and consecrated, that our God who loves us all may receive them on his holy, heavenly, and mystical altar as an aroma of spiritual fragrance, and send down upon us in return his divine grace and the gift of the Holy Spirit, let us pray.

Response:
2. Lord, have mer - cy.

Deacon: Asking for unity in the faith and for communion of the Holy Spirit, let us commit ourselves and one another and our whole life to Christ our God.

Response:
To you, O Lord.

Celebrant: God, the God of our salvation, teach us to give you worthy thanks for the bounties you have bestowed and continue to bestow on us. As you have accepted these gifts, O our God, purify us from every defilement of flesh and spirit. Teach us to grow perfect in holiness through fear of you so that, with a pure testimony of our conscience, we may receive a portion of your holy gifts and be united to the holy body and blood of your Christ. Receiving them worthily, may we have Christ living in our hearts and become temples of your Holy Spirit.

Especially, O our God, let none of us become guilty nor weakened in soul or body by partaking of these awesome and heavenly mysteries of yours unworthily. Rather, grant, O Lord, that even until our last breath, we may worthily receive a portion of your holy Gifts as a provision for the journey to eternal life, and for an acceptable defense before the fearsome judgment seat of your Christ. Then, together with all the saints who have pleased you since time began, may we become partakers of the eternal blessings which you have prepared for those who love you, O Lord.

The faithful STAND following the Litany of Fervent Supplication.

Celebrant:

Remember, O Lord, the entire episcopate of the true believers who faithfully impart the word of your truth. Remember also my unworthiness, O Lord, according to the abundance of your mercies. Forgive me every transgression voluntary and involuntary; and despite my sins do not withhold any grace of your Holy Spirit from these gifts offered here.

Remember, O Lord, the presbyterate, the diaconate in Christ, and every holy order; let none of us who surround your holy altar be put to shame. Visit us in your goodness, O Lord. Reveal yourself to us in your rich compassion. Grant us a healthful and agreeable climate and gentle showers upon the earth that it may be fruitful, and crown the cycle of the seasons with your kindness.

By the power of your Holy Spirit, bring an end to schism in the Churches, extinguish the raging of the nations, and quickly put down the upsurges of heresy. Accept us all into your kingdom, showing us to be children of the light and of the day. Grant us your peace and love, O Lord our God, for you have given us everything.

And grant that with one voice and one heart we may glorify and praise your most honored and magnificent name, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and ever and forever.

Response:

1. Lord, have mer - cy.

Celebrant:

Lord our God, you created us and brought us into this life. You have shown us ways to salvation and have bestowed on us the revelation of heavenly mysteries. You yourself have appointed us to this service by the power of your Holy Spirit. Therefore, O Lord, be pleased to make us servants of your new covenant and ministers of your holy mysteries. According to your abundant mercy, receive us as we draw near your holy altar so that we may be worthy to offer you this spiritual and unbloody sacrifice for our sins and for the people's failings. Receive it as a fragrant aroma upon your holy, heavenly, and mystical altar, and send down upon us, in return, the grace of your Holy Spirit. Look upon us, O God, and behold this our worship, and accept it as you accepted the gifts of Abel, the sacrifices of Noah, the first-fruits of Abraham, the priesthood of Moses and Aaron, and the peace-offerings of Samuel. Just as you accepted this true worship from the hands of your apostles, now, O Lord, in your goodness, accept these gifts from the hands of us sinners. May we who have been made worthy to minister without blame at your holy altar obtain the reward of faithful and wise stewards on the fearsome day of your just retribution.

Grant this through the mercies of your only-begotten Son with whom you are blessed, together with your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever.

As we offer you the holy body and blood of your Christ in this form, we pray you and beseech you, O Holy of Holies, that, according to your kind favor,
your Holy Spirit may come upon us and upon these gifts here offered; and bless and sanctify them and show this bread to be truly the precious body of our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ.
and this chalice to be truly the precious blood of our Lord, God, and Savior Jesus Christ, shed for the life of the world.
So that all of us who share this one bread and chalice may be united with one another in the communion of the one Holy Spirit, and that none of us partake of the holy body and blood of your Christ

Drink of this all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you and for many for the remission of sins.

Response:

Celebrant: Do this in remembrance of me, for as often as you eat this bread and drink this chalice you proclaim my death and profess my resurrection.

Therefore, O Master, we also remember his saving passion, the life-creating cross, the three-day burial, the resurrection from the dead, the ascension into heaven, the enthronement at your right hand, God and Father, and his glorious and fearsome second coming:

Offering you your own from your own always and everywhere.

Anamnesis Acclamation

Celebrant: All-holy Master, since you have allowed us sinners and unworthy servants to minister at your holy altar — not because of our righteousness, for we have done nothing good on earth, but because of your mercy and compassion so richly poured out upon us — cleansing us with water and sanctifying us with the Holy Spirit.

 He surrendered himself as a ransom to Death by which we were held captive,

 Descending by the cross into Hades

but provided for him the salvation of rebirth in your Christ.
 For you did not turn away from your creature forever, O Good One,
 nor forget the work of your hands;
 rather, you intervened in various ways because of your merciful loving-kindness.

You sent prophets and performed mighty deeds through your holy ones who have pleased you in every generation.
 You spoke to us through the mouth of your servants, the prophets, who foretold the salvation which was to come.
 You gave the Law as an aid, and appointed angels as guardians.
 When the fullness of time had come, you spoke to us through your own Son, the very one through whom you created the ages.

Although he is the reflection of your glory and the express image of your person, sustaining all things by his powerful word,
 He did not deem equality with you, God and Father, something to be grasped;
 rather, while remaining everlasting God,
 he appeared on earth and lived among men.

In becoming incarnate from the holy Virgin, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, conforming himself to the lowliness of our body, that he might conform us to the image of his glory.
 For since, through a man, sin entered the world,
 and through sin, death,
 so it pleased your only-begotten Son, who is in your bosom, God and Father, to be born of a woman, the holy Theotokos and Ever-Virgin Mary,
 to be born under the Law,
 to condemn sin in his flesh so that those who are dead in Adam might be brought to life in him, your Christ.

Living in this world, he gave us precepts for salvation,

Deacon: Let us stand aright, let us stand in awe, let us be attentive to offer the holy offering in peace.

Celebrant: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and Father, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Celebrant: Let us lift up our hearts.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord.

Celebrant: O Eternal Being, Master, Lord, God, Father almighty and adorable it is truly proper and just and befitting the magnificence of your holiness to praise you, to sing to you, to bless you, to worship you, to thank you, to glorify you, the only true God, and to offer you this, our spiritual worship with contrite heart and humble spirit;
for you have granted us the knowledge of your truth.

Who is able to proclaim your might, to make known all your praises, or to recount all your mighty deeds in every age?

Master of all, Lord of heaven and earth and of all creation both visible and invisible,
enthroned in glory yet fathoming the depths, eternal, invisible, incomprehensible, boundless, and changeless, Father of our great God, Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ,
you are revealed through him who is our hope,
the image of your goodness, and the seal bearing your likeness.

He is the Living Word, True God, Eternal Wisdom, Life, Sanctification, Power, and the True Light through whom the Holy Spirit has been revealed:
the Spirit of truth, the Gift of filial adoption, the Pledge of our future inheritance, the First-fruits of eternal blessings, the Life-creating Power, the Wellspring of sanctification through whom every rational and intelligent creature for all creation serves you.

Angels, archangels, thrones, dominions, principalities, virtues, powers,
and the many-eyed cherubim praise you.
You are surrounded by the six-winged seraphim;
two wings cover their face, two their feet, and with two they fly, and they call one to another with never-ending and never-silent hymns of praise:

Singing, shouting, crying aloud, and saying the triumphal hymn:

Immeasurable is the majesty of your holiness.
You are revered in all your works;

us.
Taking clay from the earth, you formed man and honored him with your own image, O God.
You placed him in a delightful paradise and promised him immortal life and the enjoyment of eternal blessings through the observance of your commandments.
But man disobeyed you, the true God who created him;
he was led astray by the deceit of the Serpent,
and by his own transgressions was subjected to death.

In your righteous judgment, O God, you banished him from paradise into this world and returned him to the earth from which he had been taken,
