

Vesper Propers, August 21, 2011
Tenth Sunday After Pentecost
Postfestive day of the Dormition

The holy apostle Thaddeus was one of the Seventy, not the same as the Jude Thaddeus who was one of the Twelve. He went to Edessa in Syria and preached the Gospel, there and throughout Syria and Phoenicia, and fell asleep in the Lord in Beirut.

The holy martyr Bassa was the wife of a pagan priest, secretly Christian. She brought up her sons in the Faith as well. Her husband handed her over to the torturers with her sons. They were beheaded in the persecution of Maximian. (3rd century)

O bless-ed a - pos - tle Thad - de - us, hav - ing drawn close to the heav - en - ly light, you be - came a light because of your di - vine com - mun - ion, and you dis - persed the

(on 5) and Israel on the Lord.

⑤

O Thad-deus, blessed and illustri-ous a-pos-tle of the Lord, af-ter the di-vine and glorious Res-ur-rec-tion and the most ho-ly As-cen-sion of Christ, you re-ceived the mission to preach the di-vine mes-sage to your cit-y, E-des-sa. By words and miracles you convert-ed Ab-gar, in the truth.

Cantor: My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 4) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

④

O bless-ed and God-wise Thad-de-us, through your ho-ly touch, the blind saw and the lame walked. The sick were healed, the weak were en-cour-aged, and the Spir - it; for this rea - son we praise you, O bless - ed one.

Af - ter various pain-ful tor - - tures you were cast in - to the sea.

Hav - ing sung about the di-vine pas - sion like a melodious bird in the mead-ow, you called your honora-ble dis-ci-ples. With them you fled from the snare

With them you made your home in the heav-en - ly king - dom, O most bless-ed one, pray for all of us.
