Sunday Before the Exaltation of the Cross
Postfestive day of the Nativity of the Theotokos

Our venerable mother Theodora of Alexandria. As a young married woman, she committed adultery on the advice of a fortune-teller. She was accused by her conscience, and left the world, cutting off her hair and dressing as a man in order to enter the monastery of Octodecatos, assuming the name Theodore. Falsely accused of having sex with a prostitute, she accepted the rebuke as a punishment for her former sin. She ended up in the desert for seven years, until the hegumen took her back. Only at her death did the monks realize that she was a woman. (490)

⑥

O Theodora, although you bore a wom-an's bod - y, you took up your dwell-ing in the midst of men. You underwent sufferings and the struggle of the pas-sions. You o - ver-came them through fast - ing, un - ceasing pray'r and at - ten - tive - ness to the Lord.

Cantor:

My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.

(on 5)

My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

The sun that sets has nev-er known you to sin, and the Unsetting Sun knows your life of vir-tue; he is the Lord who knows the depth of the heart and sees the sec-rets of all. He en - light - ened the eyes of your heart through the light of pen - ance. Be - cause of this, you has - - - ten to please him by abstain-ing from e - vil and by the per - fect - ing of vir - tues.

Cantor:

Let the watchman count on daybreak,

(on 4)

and Israel on the Lord.

Al - though you fell into the trap of the en - e - my, you still loved the child you bore a - mid re-proach; you nourished him with your love, O glo - rious moth - er, and pi - ous - ly bore the condemnation of those who de - famed you. For this reason, we celebrate your hon - or - a - ble feast, O The - o - do - ra.

(on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

O great preacher Au - to - no - mous, you illumined your - self through of the Faith. You destroyed error through your pierc - ing words, O God - wise bish - op.

Cantor: Praise the Lord all you nations; Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples.

②

You went forth freely to pain-ful suf - fer - ings, to courageous bat - tles and wounds. You suffered many stonings, O Au - to - no - mous. As a mar-tyr, you ascended the ladder of these stones to God. Now you pray with the bodi-less pow - - - ers for the world.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us; he is faithful forever.

(on 1)

①
O most ra - di - ant one, through the grace of the di - vine Spir - it, you have attained the garb of mar - tyr - dom. You have has - tened as a priest

Re - joice with me, all you chosen ones of Is - ra - el, for the Lord has given me
