

Vesper Propers, November 11, 2012
Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost

The holy martyrs Menas, Victor, and Vincent. Menas was a soldier from Egypt, who could not bear to look upon the food offering made in sacrifice to idols. Because of this, he left the army and went into the desert to live with wild beasts. Menas was arrested by a pagan governor and tortured and martyred with his companions Victor and Vincent. (304) The holy martyr Stephanis volunteered to die with Vincent. (304)

Our venerable father and confessor Theodore the Studite was hegumen of that monastery in Constantinople who suffered greatly for his defense of the cult of the holy icons. He was a wise organizer of monastic life, an inspired teacher of the Orthodox faith, and a great ascetic. He died in Constantinople at the age of 68. (826)

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2006

Lamplighting Psalms in the Tone of the Week (Tone 7, p. 92), stichera 10-7.

Cantor: (Tone 4) If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, Lord who would survive?
(on 6) But with you is found forgiveness: for this we revere you.

Stichera for the holy martyrs - Tone 4 samohlasen

⑥

Pierced by count - less cuts, struck with a lash and burned by fire over your whole bod - y, you did not deny the sav - ing name of Christ, nor yield to the blan - dish - ments, nor sacrifice to the i - dols. But, be - com - ing a pure and per - fect sac - ri - fice by your mar - tyr - dom, O Me - nas, you of - fered your-self as a vic - tim to the Lord.

Cantor: My soul is waiting for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

A cruel judge ordered you blind - ed and hung on a tree, then burned your whole bod - y with flames, cut off your limbs and be - head - ed you.
But in joy, O athlete of the Sav - ior, il - lus - tri - ous Vic - tor, you were vic - to - rious over the En - e - my with the aid of the Spir - - - it.

Cantor: Let the watchman count on daybreak,
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

O Stephanis, the Lord has crowned you with a crown of grace as a martyr of man - y strug-gles; for you courageously handed yourself o-ver to tor - ments and were torn a - part, tied to two palm trees.

Cantor: (Tone 8) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of Theodore the Studite - Tone 8 samohlasen

In keep - ing with the name you bore, O The - o - dore, you re - ceived gifts from

Heav - en sur - pass - ing all un - der - stand - ing, then shared them with your friends. Af - ter mul - ti - plying the talent giv - en you by the Lord, you heard his di - vine voice call - ing you to the joy of the heav - en - ly ban - quet. You now share forev - er in glo - ry be - fore the throne of Christ, the King of All.

Cantor:

Praise the Lord, all you nations,

Psalm 116*(on 2)*

acclaim him all you peoples!

②

O ex-cel-lent Fa - ther, you led a whole multi-tude of monks to Christ.

In be - com - ing the cause of their sal - va - tion, you im - i - tat - ed the Sav - - - ior. You shone by your teach - ings: in you, souls have found their pro - tec - tor; and, by your prophecies, you were the mouth-piece of the Lord. For-ev - er in his pres - ence, now in - ter-cede be - fore him and be mind - ful of us all.

Cantor:

Strong is the love of the Lord for us;

(on 1)

he is faithful forever.

①

The grace of the Spir-it was clear-ly poured out on your lips in abundance, O di-vine preach - er, and caused streams of teachings to flow forth,

O The - o - dore, cham-pion of the Faith, un - shak - able pillar supporting Or - tho - dox - y, en - er - get - ic defend-er of the truth, ex - act rule for the mo - nas - tic life, O bless - ed fa - ther!

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Doxastikon of the holy martyrs - Tone 6 samohlasen

Once a - gain the yearly festival of those lights of the u - ni - verse. Me - nas, Vic - tor and Vin - cent, has shone upon the hearts of be - liev - ers, en - light - ened by the struggles they waged for love of Christ as they took up their cross. Thus we wish to praise Christ our God who has crowned them with glo - ry and hon - - or.

Cantor: (Tone 7) Now and ever...

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Aposticha doxastikon of our venerable father Theodore the Studite - Tone 6 samohlasen

Ven-er - a - ble fa-ther The-o-dore, the whole world is filled with the fame of your ho - ly deeds; through them, you have received the recompense of your la - bors in Heav - en. You de-destroyed hordes of de - mons and have been united to the choirs of an - gels, whose pure lives you im - i - tat - ed. By your bold-ness with Christ our God, ask peace for our souls.

Cantor: Now and ever...
