

Vesper Propers, August 10, 2014
Ninth Sunday after Pentecost

Postfestive day of the Transfiguration

The holy martyr and archdeacon Lawrence of Rome, who desired the fellowship of Pope Sixtus even in martyrdom. As St. Leo the Great relates, when ordered to hand over the treasures of the Church, he instead showed to the foolish tyrant the poor. As archdeacon, it was his ministry to care for them, and on a great number of whom he had lavished the necessities of life and clothing. The third day after his arrest, he conquered the flames for the sake of the faith of Christ. In honor of his triumph even the instruments of his execution were transformed. His body is buried in Rome in the Campo Verano in the cemetery called by his name. (258)

Troparion of the Transfiguration - Tone 7

You were trans-fig-ured on the mountain, O Christ our God, re-veal-ing as much of your glory to your disci-ples as they could be-hold. Through the prayers of the The-o-to-kos, let your ev-er-last-ing light also shine up-on us sin-ners.
O Giv-er of Light, glo-ry to you!

for he is the Sav-ior of our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 1) Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption,
(on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

Stichera of Lawrence - Tone 1 podoben: Nebesnych činov

O pre-cious one, you served the Word spot-less-ly by the ma-te-rial fire of an aromatic off-er-ing to the Lord. It was wor-thy of heav-en-ly joy. O Law-rence, pray for us who ven-er-ate you.

Cantor: Praise the Lord all you nations; Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples.

You gave your-self to the Lord as a treas-ure, and you were obedient to his words, O bless-ed man of God. O wise Mar-tyr, you gener-ous-ly gave to the poor the wealth that can-not be sto-len; in wis-dom and won-der you trans-formed the tor-tures for your own good.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

O Law-rence, the beau-ty of mar - tyrs, the glo - rious and mar-vel - ous

O Lord, when you were trans - fig - ured be - fore be - ing cru - ci - fied, Mount Tabor was made to re-sem - ble heav - en; for a cloud was extended as a can - o - py, and the Fa - ther bore wit - ness to you. Pe - ter, James, and John were pres - ent there, the same three apostles who were to be with you at the time of the betray-al of Ju - das, so that, having seen you in glo-ry, they would not be dismayed at the time of your suf - fer - ing. Like-wise, O Lord, make us worthy to rec-og - nize you as our God in the same sufferings you endured in your great mer - cy, and to a - dore you.

Cantor: Now and ever...
