He who knows the hu - man heart, in his divine foreknowledge saw your sentiments toward him, O ho - ly A - pos - tle, and separated you from the world, de - liv - ering you from iniquity, O Mat - thew. Then he made you a lamp to enlight-en the ends of the earth, and at his command, you shone forth.
There-fore, you were worthy to write his di-vine Gos - pel. Pray to him to save and en - light - en our souls.

Cantor: My soul is longing for the Lord. I count on his word.
(on 5) My soul is longing for the Lord more than watchman for daybreak.

The Word who had no be-gin - ning called you from the ranks of pub - li-cans to be his disci-ple, O Mat - thew, and urged you to fol - low him you left all things, re - noun-cing trouble and con - fu - sion, and you fol-lowed him with a sure step. Now, O eyewitness of our God, you are filled with the ineffa-ble vi - sion of God. Pray to him to save

Aposticha doxastikon of the Apostle - Tone 6 samohlasen

Soar-ing like an ea-gle on high, you have wondrous-ly as-cend - ed from the depths of infamy to the heights of the vir - tues, O il - lustrious Apos-tle Mat - thew. You have followed in the foot-steps of Christ, who cov-ered the heavens with his praise, and the earth with his knowl - edge. In all things you showed yourself to be his im-i - ta - tor, an - nouncing the Gospel of peace, life, and sal - va - tion to the faith - ful open to his di-vine pre - cepts. Guide us a - long the way that we may be acceptable to the Cre - a - tor and Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

The penetrating gaze of a proph - et once saw you as a ho - ly stone, roll - ing over the earth to crush the ways of the wick - ed. O bless-ed one, the In - car - nate Word has made you a light for the world, a her - ald of jus-tice and truth, ra-diant with the splendor flowing from the tri - ple Sun.
Pray to him to save and en-light-en our souls.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116 (on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

When the Un - ap - proach - a - ble Light willed to come in the flesh to scatter the darkness of igno-rance and er - ror, at his call, his life-giv-ing com-mand, you fol - lowed him As a ser - vant of the di-vine Wis - dom.

You kept the law of God and were an inef-fa - ble light, a dwell-ing - place of Christ for the Church, O Mat - thew. Pray to him to save and en-light-en our souls.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us; (on 1) he is faithful forever.

① With your words of fire, you consumed all er - ror, O Apostle worthy of praise, all - wise Mat - thew, who received the visit of the Par - a - clete when he il - lu-mined your whole be - ing. Thus you filled with won-der the spir - its of those who heard you speak when you announced to the peo - ple the mag-ni - ficence of the Al-might-y One. Your mes-sage, in-spired by God, has gone out through all the world. Pray to him to save and en-light-en our souls.

Cantor: Glory...

Doxastikon of the Apostle

Christ called you to the school of heav - en, and by divine inspiration, you followed him with your whole heart, in - stantly leaving all earthly oc - cu - pa-tions.
 Tak-ing by obedience the dis-po-si - tions in keep-ing with the King-dom on high, you renounced all the vainglory and greed of a publi-can, O Mat-thew, and be-came an evangelist, a light for dark-ened hearts. You lead err-ing sheep to sal-va - tion as an always fervent intercessor for the world be-fore God, and a saving protector of the faith - ful who glo - ri - fy you.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Now and ever...
