

Vesper Propers, October 18, 2015
Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost

The holy apostle and evangelist Luke who, as it is told, was born of a pagan family in Antioch and was a doctor by profession. He was converted to the faith and became a most-beloved companion of blessed Paul the Apostle. A scribe with the gentleness of Christ, he diligently arranged all the things which Jesus did and taught in the book of his Gospel. Likewise, in his Acts of the Apostles, he told the beginnings of the life of the Church up to the time of the first visit of Paul to Rome.

Cantor: Now and ever...

Festal theotokion in the same tone (Tone 5, p. 80).

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Aposticha doxastikon of the holy apostle Luke - Tone 6 samohlasen

O ho - ly a - pos - tle of Christ, skilled fisherman, worker in the vineyard of the Sav - ior: you de - scribed his Pas - sion. Ha - ving gone over the whole world with faith, you gathered the wan - der - ing na - tions and of - fered them to our God; like in - cense. you rose to heav - en.
In the presence of the judge, in - ter - cede for us, that he may deliver us from of laws, which came from Zion and are preached by you? In - ter - cede for the sal - va - tion of our souls.

Cantor: Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, (on 3) Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

What shall I call you, O glo - rious A - pos - tle? An at - ten - tive phy - si - cian who heals souls and bod - ies with the treas - ures of heav - en's gra - ces?
A col - lab - orator and travel - ing com - pan - ion of Paul? The writ - er of the Acts of the Apos - tles, O ho - ly Luke? There are man - y names for your man - y qual - i - ties. In - ter - cede for the sal - va - tion of our souls.

Cantor: Praise the Lord, all you nations, Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples!

What shall I call you, O di - vine preach - er? A dis - ci - ple who gave us the good news of Christ: A phy-si-cian through whom our souls are healed of their pas-sions? A ra-diance shin-ing the su-preme Light? The sol-id foun-da-tion of the Faith who wrote an account of the all-holy Gos-pel for our sake? In-ter-cede for the sal-va-tion of our souls.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

What shall I call you, O won-drous A-pos-tle? A faith-ful ob-serv-er of the Wis-dom which in-structs us? The writ-er of of the Apostles, whose teach-ings you re-late? The un-shak-a-ble pil-lar of the Faith, ram-part of the Church, in-vi-o-late for-tress? Count-less are your deeds, and more count-less your gifts. In-ter-cede for the sal-va-tion of our souls.

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Doxastikon of the holy apostle Luke - Tone 6

O ho-ly a-pos-tle of Christ, whose di-vine teach-ing you re-late, foun-da-tion stone of the church: tru-ly, by your preach-ing, you have drawn back from the abyss of per-di-tion the hearts dark-ened by ig-nor-ance. You save them from the violence of the storm-y waves, O you who were both the companion and imitator of the Vessel of E-lec-tion. O won-drous Luke, we en-treat you, O jewel of the Anti-och-i-ans: in-tercede be-fore the Sav-ior, our God, for the faith-ful who cel-e-brate your sa-cred mem-o-ry.
