

Vesper Propers, June 23, 2019
Second Sunday after Pentecost

The holy martyr Agrippina was born and brought up in Rome. From a young age, she resolved to have no spouse except Christ alone. She suffered cruel torments for the faith in the reign of the emperor Valerian. (275)

If Rome is a gar - den, then you are the beautiful rose bloom - ing there - in,
O A - grip - pi - na, who fought the good fight, for you per - fume
the hearts of be - liev - ers with the gen - tle fragrance of your vir - tues;
and by grace you take away the stale smell of the pas - sions, O strong sup - port of the Church and jewel of mar - tyrs, sea of mir - a - cles and glo - ry of vir - - - - gins.

Cantor: Praise the Lord all you nations; Psalm 116
(on 2) acclaim him all you peoples.

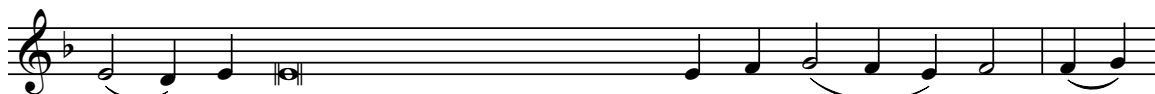

Christ our God has granted you to Si - ci - ly as a pearl of great price, O mar - tyr of Rome. There, by your pres - ence and pro - tec - tion, you drive a - way the multitude of dark de - mons. Thus we call you bless - ed and cel - ebrate today your holy passion, O A - grip - pi - na, who fought the good fight.

Cantor: Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
(on 1) he is faithful forever.

By or - der of him who car - ries all things, O mar - tyr A - grip - pi - na,

Paul - a and Bas - sa carried you from place to place, and e - ven a - cross the wide sea, while you worked mir - acles by the grace of God. Then you rest - ed in the place where God wished, there to of - fer rest to the op - pressed.

Cantor: (Tone 1) Glory...now and ever...
