

Vesper Propers, October 20, 2019
Nineteenth Sunday after Pentecost

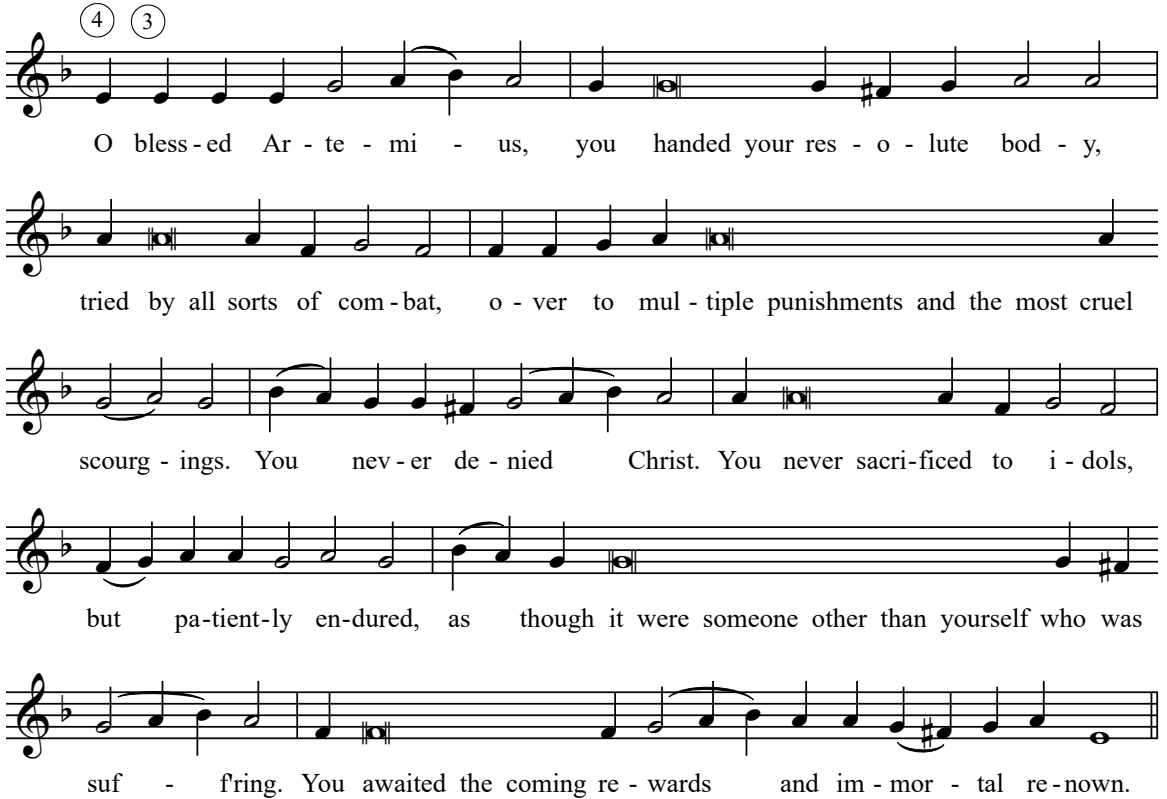

The holy great martyr Artemius. Egyptian by birth, he was the commander-in- chief of the army of emperor St. Constantine the Great. When the cross of the Lord appeared in the sky to the emperor, Artemius also saw it and came to faith. He was eventually appointed governor in Egypt. During the reign of emperor Julian the Apostate, he was stripped of his rank and thrown into prison. The emperor had him cruelly killed. (392)

Supplement for The Order of Vespers for Sundays after Pentecost, 2006

Lamplighting Psalms in the Tone of the Week (Tone 2, p. 36), stichera 10-5.

Cantor: (Tone 4) Let the watchman count on daybreak,
(on 4) and Israel on the Lord.

Stichera of the holy great martyr Artemius - Tone 4 samohlasen

O bless-ed Ar-te-mi-us, you handed your res-o-lute bod-y, tried by all sorts of com-bat, o-ver to mul-tiple punishments and the most cruel scourg-ings. You nev-er de-nied Christ. You never sacri-ficed to i-dols, but pa-tient-ly en-dured, as though it were someone other than yourself who was suf-fring. You awaited the coming re-wards and im-mor-tal re-nown.

Cantor:
(on 3)

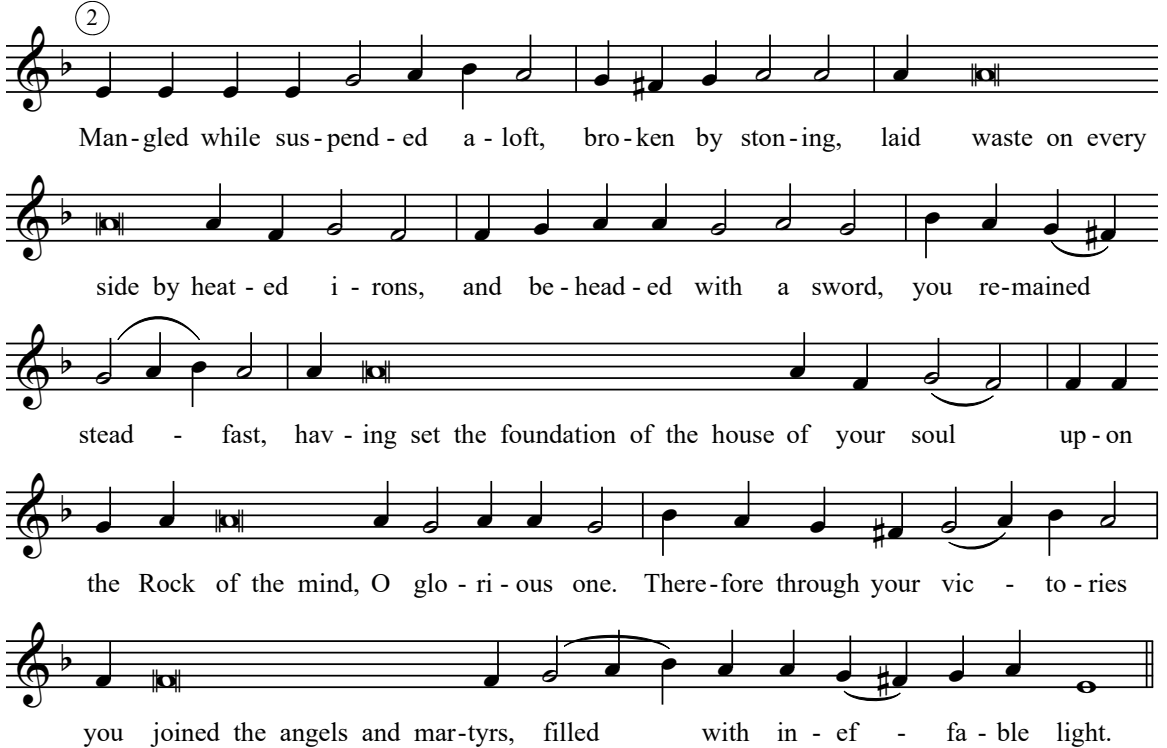

Because with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption, Israel indeed he will redeem from all its iniquity.

All repeat: " O blessed Artemius, you handed your resolute body over to be tortured..."

Cantor:
(on 2)

Praise the Lord all you nations; Psalm 116
acclaim him all you peoples.

②

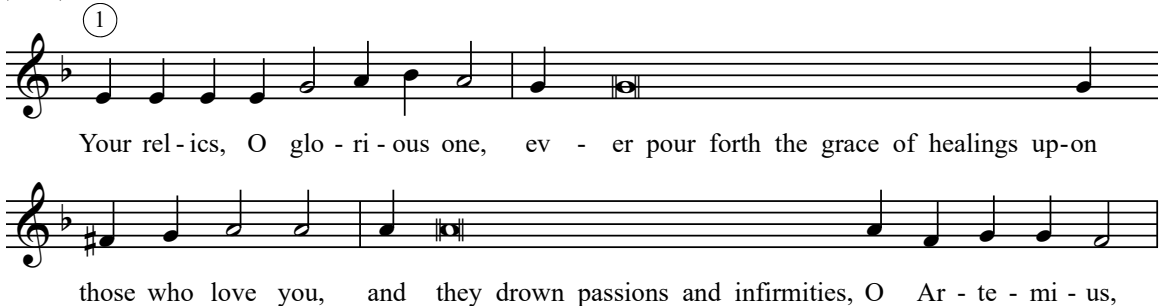

Man-gled while sus-pend-ed a-loft, bro-ken by ston-ing, laid waste on every side by heat-ed i-rons, and be-head-ed with a sword, you re-mained stead-fast, hav-ing set the foundation of the house of your soul up-on the Rock of the mind, O glo-ri-ous one. There-fore through your vic-to-ries you joined the angels and mar-tyrs, filled with in-ef-fa-ble light.

Cantor:
(on 1)

Strong is the love of the Lord for us;
he is faithful forever.

①

Your rel-ics, O glo-ri-ous one, ev-er pour forth the grace of healings up-on those who love you, and they drown passions and infirmities, O Ar-te-mi-us, and rout le - gions of e-vil de - mons; and they wa - ter the hearts of the faith - ful, caus-ing the divine fruits of the virtues and the knowledge of pi - e - ty to spring forth.

Cantor: (Tone 2) Glory...

Dogmatikon of the holy great martyr Artemius - Tone 2 samohlasi

Let us ven - erate Artemius, that light of the faith, for he de-nounced the hate-ful em-per-or. With the blood of his martyrdom, the Lord clothed his Church in pur-ple. Thus he has received abundant grace to heal dis - eas - es for the faith - ful who have re-course to the shrine where his rel - ics re - pose.

Cantor: (Tone 2) Now and ever...

Aposticha

Sunday aposticha in the Tone of the Week (Tone 2, p.43), concluding with:

Cantor: (Tone 6) Glory...

Aposticha doxastikon of the holy great martyr Artemius - Tone 6 samohlasi

Hav - ing suf - fered for Christ in accordance with the law, O Ar - te - mi - us, and brought to nothing both an earthly emperor and the spir - i - tual foe, as is prop - er you received a crown from the Sav - ior, the Judge who de - ter - mined your or - deal. And now you rejoice in the heavens with the ranks of the an - gels, man - ifestly delighting in the light on high, and partaking abundantly of the first and tri - hy - po - stat - ic Light. There - fore, we, the right - believing people who love the mar - tyrs, with hymns cry out to you: Re - joice, invincible adamant diamond of soul and might-y war-rior of Christ! Re-joice, destroyer of the falsehood of idolatry and ra - diant cham-pion of truth! Yet en - treat the Lord that through you we also may re-ceive a place at the throne of his maj-es - ty.

Cantor: Now and ever...
